Definitions

In this Code of Ethics, for the purposes of this document, these terms are given the following meanings:

Children
People between the ages of birth and eight years.

Families
The people who have significant care responsibilities for and/or kinship with children in early childhood settings.

Early childhood professional
A person who works with or on behalf of children and families in early childhood settings.

Communities
Groups of people who identify as having shared values and intentions.

Employer
An individual or organisation which employs early childhood professionals.

Student
A person undertaking study at a secondary or tertiary institution.

Preamble
In this Code of Ethics, the protection and wellbeing of children is paramount. Therefore speaking out or taking action in the presence of unethical practice is an essential professional responsibility.

In this Code of Ethics, the national working party was mindful of the changing world in which we live and work. The Code is intended for use by all early childhood professionals who work with or on behalf of children and families in early childhood settings.

This Code of Ethics is an essential professional responsibility. Speaking out or taking action in the presence of unethical practice is paramount. Therefore, speaking out or taking action in the presence of unethical practice is an essential professional responsibility.

Contact Early Childhood Australia:

- Become a member or receive an information pack.
- Subscribe to our quarterly publications:
  - Every Child magazine
  - Australasian Journal of Early Childhood
  - Research in Practice Series
  - Everyday Learning Series
- Discover our wide range of quality-assured books and resources.

Visit www.earlychildhoodaustralia.org.au for great online resources:

- Subscribe to our free ECA WebWatch e-newsletter.
- Browse hundreds of articles in the comprehensive Supporting Best Practice web directory.
- Keep up to date with the latest news and events.
- Shop from our quality-assured catalogue.

Early Childhood Australia
PO Box 86, Deakin West, ACT 2600
1800 356 900 (freecall)
T: (02) 6242 1800
F: (02) 6242 1818
E: eca@earlychildhood.org.au
www.earlychildhoodaustralia.org.au
I. In relation to children, I will:
1. Act in the best interests of all children.
3. Recognise children as active citizens participating in different communities such as family, children’s services and schools.
4. Work with children to help them understand that they are global citizens with shared responsibilities to the environment and humanity.
5. Respect the special relationship between children and their families and incorporate this perspective in all my interactions with children.
6. Create and maintain safe, healthy environments, spaces and places, which enhance children’s learning, development, engagement, initiative, self-worth, dignity and show respect for their contributions.
7. Work to ensure children and families with additional needs can exercise their rights.
8. Acknowledge the uniqueness and potential of all children, in recognition that enjoying their childhood without undue pressure is important.
9. Acknowledge the holistic nature of children’s learning and the significance of children’s cultural and linguistic identities.
10. Work to ensure children are not discriminated against on the basis of gender, age, ability, economic status, family structure, lifestyle, ethnicity, religion, language, culture, or national origin.
II. In relation to families, I will:
11. Acknowledge children as competent learners, and build active communities of engagement and inquiry.
12. Honour children’s right to play, as both a process and context of learning.
III. In relation to colleagues, I will:
1. Encourage my colleagues to adopt and act in accordance with this Code, and take action in the presence of unethical behaviours.
2. Build collaborative relationships based on trust, respect and honesty.
3. Acknowledge and support the personal strengths, professional experience and diversity which my colleagues bring to their work.
4. Make every effort to use constructive methods to manage differences of opinion in the spirit of collegiality.
5. Share and build knowledge, experiences and resources with my colleagues.
6. Collaborate with my colleagues to generate a culture of continual reflection and renewal of high-quality practices in early childhood.
IV. In relation to communities, I will:
1. Learn about the communities that I work within and enact curriculum programs which are responsive to those contexts and community priorities.
2. Connect with people, services and agencies within the communities that support children and families.
3. Promote shared aspirations amongst communities in order to enhance children’s health and wellbeing.
4. Advocate for the development and implementation of laws and policies that promote child-friendly communities and work to change those that work against child and family wellbeing.
5. Utilise knowledge and research to advocate for universal access to a range of high-quality early childhood programs for all children.
6. Work to promote community understanding of how children learn, in order that appropriate systems of assessment and reporting are used to benefit children.

V. In relation to students, I will:
1. Afford professional opportunities and resources for students to demonstrate their competencies.
2. Acknowledge and support the personal strengths, professional knowledge diversity and experience which students bring to the learning environment.
3. Model high-quality professional practices.
4. Know the requirements of the students’ individual institutions and communicate openly with the representatives of that institution.
5. Provide ongoing constructive feedback and assessment that is fair and equitable.
6. Implement strategies that will empower students to make positive contributions to the workplace.
7. Maintain confidentiality in relation to students.

VI. In relation to my employer, I will:
1. Support workplace policies, standards and practices that are fair, non-discriminatory and are in the best interests of children and families.
2. Promote and support ongoing professional development within my work team.
3. Adhere to lawful policies and procedures and, when there is conflict, attempt to effect change through constructive action within the organisation or seek change through appropriate procedures.

VII. In relation to myself as a professional, I will:
1. Base my work on contemporary perspectives on research, theory, content knowledge, high-quality early childhood practices and my understandings of the children and families with whom I work.
2. Regard myself as a learner who undertakes reflection, critical self-study continuing professional development and engages with contemporary theory and practice.
3. Seek and build collaborative professional relationships.
4. Acknowledge the power dimensions within professional relationships.
5. Act in ways that advance the interests and standing of my profession.
6. Work within the limits of my professional role and avoid misrepresentation of my professional competence and qualifications.
7. Mentor other early childhood professionals and students.
8. Advocate in relation to issues that impact on my profession and on young children and their families.
9. Encourage qualities and practices of leadership within the early childhood profession.

VIII. In relation to the conduct of research, I will:
1. Recognise that research includes my routine documentation and investigations of children’s learning and development, as well as more formal research projects undertaken with and by external bodies.
2. Be responsive to children’s participation in research, negotiating their involvement taking account of matters such as safety, fatigue, privacy and their interest.
3. Support research to strengthen and expand the knowledge base of early childhood, and where possible, initiate, contribute to, facilitate and disseminate such research.
4. Make every effort to understand the purpose and value of proposed research projects and make informed decisions as to the participation of myself, colleagues, children, families and communities.
5. Ensure research in which I am involved meets standard ethical procedures including informed consent, opportunity to withdraw and confidentiality.
6. Ensure that images of children and other data are only collected with informed consent and are stored and utilised according to legislative and policy requirements.
7. Represent the findings of all research accurately.

The Early Childhood Australia Code of Ethics (2006) was developed by a national working party consisting of Lennie Barblett (Convenor), John Basile, Sandra Chessman, Margareth Cipola-Lyn Faull, Catharine Hyland, Anna Kamenop, Elizabeth Dux, Linda Newman, Lisa Pohjola, Gillian Styles, Louise Thomas, Laura Easte and Christine Woodrow.

This working party acknowledges the work of the original Code of Ethics working party and thanks them for their outstanding contribution to the early childhood profession.

Early Childhood Australia
A voice for young children